

Complete concentration

Completely concentrate on your core business, we'll take care of the secure and current availability of your company's software 365 days per year.

No investment

Conserve your liquidity and spare yourself high investment costs and risks. Simply start your SAP project without risk with clearly calculable costs.

Highly flexible

Increase your flexibility now and outsource IT capacity, know-how, technology, and security risks into professional hands.

Dynamically scalable

Adjust your IT resources to your specific needs flexibly and in a short period of time.

Unlimited availability

Use SAP Business One when, where and on whichever device you want.

No IT expenses

Free yourself from the limitation of just your own IT resources. Maintenance of your hardware and software, including backups, will be professionally done for you.

Highest level of security

Reduce your security risk through professional security management in a protected computer center, certified according to ISO/IEC 27001:2013.

Decisive competition advantage

Profit from the latest standardized hardware and software. Speed up the market launch of your new products and services.

Fast implementation

Quickly provide your users with new components and features the moment they are needed.

Best performance

Profit from the reliable and secure availability through the professional operation and maintenance of your hardware and software.